

Sarah Evans

Home

7714 196th Street SW #107
Edmonds, Washington 98026
(425) 778-9253
sarahe@u.washington.edu

Work

23303 Brier Road
Brier, Washington 98036
(425) 483-1468, extension 14
sevens@sno-isle.org

Master's Portfolio

<http://students.washington.edu/sarahe/portfolio>

Professional Profile

Leadership

- Reformed the Friends of the Brier Library into an active fundraising group
- Established positive, on-going relationship for public library with local middle school
- Co-creator of iPeer, a program to match new and experienced distance MLIS students at the University of Washington
- Elected Distance Representative (2005-2006) and President (2006-2007) of the Association of Library and Information Science Students

Service

- Member of system-wide Reader's Advisory Team for teens and adults
- Served on system-wide Training Advisory Committee for two years
- Evaluated and reorganized library for Spruce Street School

Training and Teaching

- Developed requested training on inspirational fiction for region librarians
- Completed 240 hours of teaching practicum in local schools in addition to 12 weeks of full-time student teaching
- Provided diversity workshop to system supervisors, incorporating experiences in Deaf culture and American Sign Language.

Information Technology

- Created and maintain reader's advisory website for audio books (http://students.washington.edu/sarahe/sounds_great)
- Co-moderator of iYouth listserv for the discussion of children's and teen library services
- Created and presented training on library databases at local elementary and middle schools

Work History

2000 - Present, Branch Manager, Sno-Isle Libraries, Brier, Washington
1999 - 2000, Children's Liaison, Sno-Isle Libraries, Edmonds, Washington
1997 - 1999, Administrative Assistant, Storytellers Ink, Seattle, Washington
1997 - 1997, Software Instructor, New Horizons, Bellevue, Washington
1993 - 1996, Resident Advisor, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

Education

2004 - 2007 University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

- Master of Library and Information Science

2002 - 2004 Western Washington University, Bellingham, Washington

- Elementary Education Program, K-8 Teaching Certificate

1992 - 1997 University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

- Bachelor of Arts, Drama

Sarah Evans

Home

7714 196th Street SW #107
Edmonds, Washington 98026
(425) 778-9253
sarahe@u.washington.edu

Work

23303 Brier Road
Brier, Washington 98036
(425) 483-1468, extension 14
sevans@sno-isle.org

Master's Portfolio

<http://students.washington.edu/sarahe/portfolio>

Selected Course Work

- Catalogs, Cataloging, and Classification
- Competitive Intelligence
- Electronic Collection Development
- Information Architecture
- Knowledge Management
- The Role of Information Behavior in Human-Computer Interaction
- Special Librarianship

Awards and Honors

- Friends of the Edmonds Library Scholarship 2005
- Friends of the Lynnwood Library Scholarship 2005
- William E. Henry Fellowship 2005 and 2006

Professional Organization Membership

- American Library Association
- American Society for Information Science and Technology
- Special Library Association
- Washington Library Association